Relaxed performances at The Court Theatre

To help you prepare for your visit to The Court Theatre we have put together this information pack.

1. Arriving at The Court Theatre

When you arrive at the theatre you can park for free, or get dropped off in our car park opposite the theatre.

Come into the theatre through these doors.

This is the box office where you need to collect your ticket.

This is the foyer where you can relax before the performance.

Before the show you can visit the toilets. They are off the hall opposite the box office.

Use the drawing tables to colour in a picture of Snow White.

Visit the coffee bar, where you can buy drinks and snacks.

When it is time to go into the theatre, give the ushers your ticket and they will show you through these doors into the auditorium.

This is the auditorium where you will watch the show. You can choose any seat to sit in. The auditorium won't be full so you can change seats during the show if you would like to.

If you need to leave the theatre for a break that is ok. You can chill out in the foyer until you are ready to go back in.

2. Watching the show

- During the show three actors will come on stage to tell you a story.
- At the beginning of the show the actors don't arrive and the ushers decide to put on the show themselves.
- Sometimes they might ask you for ideas or help. You can join in if you want to.
- You will know the show has finished because the actors will take a bow.
- At the end of the show the actors will be in the foyer, you can say hi if you want to.
- If there is an earthquake the theatre is very safe. Stay in your seat and wait for someone to tell you how to leave the building safely.
