

MR & MRS MACBETH OF HEATHCOTE VALLEY RD

The Court Theatre, Christchurch Now until 22 June

Legendary New Zealand actor Mark Hadlow and stage veteran Lara MacGregor have wowed audiences and reviewers over opening weekend of The Court Theatre's production of Mr & Mrs Macbeth of Heathcote Valley Road.

"Madness and mayhem at its best", "A comedy with heart, flawlessly acted" and "masterful ... bloody marvellous." Hadlow and MacGregor reunite to bring to life, and almost death, to their characters, husband and wife duo Jo and Tom Macbeth – professional actors who have a reputation as Shakespearean specialists.

Masterfully written by Gregory Cooper, it all begins 30 minutes before curtain up in the dressing room where something major has happened. Not great timing.

Crisp, sharp dialogue, revelations and discoveries on both sides provide moments of emotion, accusations and crackling synergy. With a crisis just before the interval, disaster seems imminent. The second half is filled with every actor's nightmare - being in the wrong play at the wrong time, especially when Taika Waititi is in the house casting for his Amazon-funded film version of the Shakespearian tragedy.

Enjoy a rollercoaster ride of comedy, drama, poignancy, and explosive conflict, as these two stage dynamos reveal the highs and lows of partnerships, on and off the stage. Mr & Mrs Macbeth of Heathcote Valley Road will appeal to all, including those who hated Shakespeare at school.
